

Week 4: Love Reigns Over Our Future

Series: Love Reigns

Key Verses: Matthew 6:25–34

Speaker: Dr. Justin Hardcastle

Big Idea: Too many people are consumed with worry and anxiety about what tomorrow might hold. This fear can be paralyzing. As Christians we believe that our loving heavenly Father is always looking out for us. He takes care of the birds of the air and the flowers of the field and that gives us confidence that he will take care of us too. There is no benefit from worry, in fact, anxiety only hurts us. We should trust God and allow him to guide our steps.

Worry is an all-consuming use of our time, energy and attention on things that we cannot control. Read: Matthew 6.

God Sees _____

- Jesus tells us not to worry about our life.
- God offers proof for his ability to provide for us.
- Jesus reminds us of our incredible worth.
- Read: Jeremiah 29:11.
- God has a preferred future that he longs for you to live into.

Seek God _____

- Jesus gives us a way to ensure that our future falls in line with his will for our lives.
- READ: Matthew 6:28-34

- Most of the things that we spend our time worrying about never come to pass anyway and yet so much of our energy is spent on it.

Use Your Time _____

- We all only have so many days in our lives.
- Our future must be stewarded well.
- READ: Psalm 90:12
- He is asking for awareness so that he uses the days of his life in a manner that honors God and honors people.
- As you live your life it is important to ask yourself if the places that your time, energy, attention and affection are going, are the most important places they could possibly go.
